HAPPY NEW YEAR! THE GLRC WILL BE BUSY IN 2015

As GLRC members' permits continue to go on public notice, we have been looking closely at our action plan and we are going to be busy in 2015! Here are just some of the things we will be focusing on:

- Final permit issuance for all members
- Present information on stormwater management to local business groups (e.g. rotary clubs)
- Assist all GLRC members with their public outreach and education through events, local websites, and social media
- Educate local school districts about stormwater management
- Illicit discharge and elimination staff training
- Continue to partner with other local watershed groups
- Work with the Tri-County Regional Planning Commission to assist all communities in the region with streamlining water-related programming to be more effective and efficient with limited resources
- Redesign of the GLRC website to be more user friendly and easily updated

If you are interested in getting involved with a committee or volunteering, please contact Erin Campbell, GLRC Coordinator at ecampbell@mitcrpc.org or 517.393.0342

SAVE THE DATES!

The GLRC is excited to be an exhibitor at these upcoming events:

Quiet Water Symposium: March 7, 2015

The Quiet Water Society is a 501C3 corporation founded to educate the public and encourage participation in non-motorized outdoor recreation; to promote public concern for the water resources of the Great Lakes region; and to support environmental stewardship and conservation of natural resources. The 20th Annual Quiet Water Symposium will be held once again on the campus of Michigan State University as part of Michigan State University's Agriculture and Natural Resources Week.

More information on the symposium can be found at www.quietwatersymposium.org.

MWEA Watershed Summit: March 25, 2015

The Michigan Water Environment Association's Annual Watershed Summit will be held March 25, 2015 at the Eagle Eye Banquet Hall in East Lansing, MI. Learn what your local watershed groups have been working on and how you can get involved.

The purpose of this summit is to:

- Bring together as many of Michigan's watershed groups as possible
- Provide an opportunity for speakers from other organizations to share information and updates
- Give groups a chance to interact with and learn from each other
- Facilitate discussion in the current status, concerns and outlooks regarding Michigan's water environment

More information on the summit can be found at www.mi-wea.org.
